To whom it may concern, as a long time user of Windows I feel as a consumer I have been harmed by Microsoft's unlawful practices. As they stem rolled or bought and abandoned technologies that I wanted or needed these technologies just disappeared or "evolved" into products from Microsoft that were less useful than the original product. As I have been time and time again frustrated by Microsoft and their practices I strongly urge you to prosecute Microsoft to the full extent of the law.
Thank you
